

U.S. News & World Report

29 Jan 1962

Washington Whispers®

[Items appearing on this page are being talked about in Washington or other news centers]

Latin-American Game: "Blackmail" U.S. . . . Russian Subchasers for Cuba . . . Wagner vs. Rockefeller in '62?

"Liberals" in the State Department have been feeding newspapermen ideas to provide a basis for attack on John McCone, named by President Kennedy to head the Central Intelligence Agency. These "liberals" feel that McCone would have a "conservative" viewpoint in assessing events in the world.

★ ★ ★

for the Communists. Cubans working at the base are forced by the Castro regime to turn over 90 per cent of their dollar earnings in exchange for Cuban pesos.

★ ★ ★

Kennedy aides feel that Republicans missed their great political opportunity when they failed to attack the Administration vigorously after the fum-

India's Nehru is pictured as looking more and more to Moscow as the one center that can bring pressure on the Chinese Communists to check their expansion, while Pakistan, a U.S. ally, is said to be edging up to Red China, which has designs on India, Pakistan's enemy.

★ ★ ★

Aides of Nelson Rockefeller are going